

Minutes

Time. 2009-12-28, 15.00
Location. Stockholm
Present. Fanny Fagerdahl
Stephanie Franzén
Marcus Lundström

§1 Opening of the meeting

Chairperson, Fanny Fagerdahl, opens the meeting

§2 Approval of agenda

The agenda was approved

§3 Project Ghandi

Project Ghandi are supposed to be an annual event at the autumn term, approximately in November. The aim is to have a weekend to improve the relationship between the different seats of learning. Contrary to Biobollen, project Ghandi will be arranged by the BRO-board, with the vice-chairman as the project leader. The project will take place in Stockholm, to please all universities. The preliminary schedule is to have research lectures at Friday afternoon and heptathlon at Saturday. At the evenings some kind of dinner and activity will be arranged. Sunday is cleaning and journey day.

§4 Designing Project Ghandi

Combined open-air walking and quiz competition: walk of 47, start at "Plattan" – end at KI. Price for best rigged out (liquorice?)

Heptathlon:

1. Balloon relay – 50% elimination round
2. Body parts in Latin – 50% elimination round
3. Charade – semi-final on stage

4. Drinking relay – final on stage

Research lectures: 2 lecture from each seat of learning, every one will have max. 20 minutes including questions.

Preliminary schedule for Saturday:

- 10.00 – 12.00 Brunch
- 12.30 Releasing the task
- 15.00 Back at KI
- 16.00 – 18.00 Heptathlon
- 18.30 – 20.00 Dinner and finals

§5 Renaming Project Ghandi

Proposed new name: "A weekend at the country" (En helg på landet)

§6 Other questions

None

§7 Conclusion of the meeting